The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 12, to Tuesday December 15, 1747.

AT the Court at St. James's the 11th Day of December, 1747.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the ſeveral Rules and Regulations contained in his Majeſty's Orders in Council of the 18th of June, the 8th of September, and the 27th of October laſt, for the better Preventing the Spreading the Diſtemper amongſt the Horned Cattle, will expire on the 20th Day of this Inſtant December — And whereas the ſaid Diſtemper ſtill continues to rage in ſeveral Parts of the Kingdom — His Majeſty doth therefore, by this his Order made in his Privy Council, declare and order, That all the Rules and Regulations contained in his Majeſty's Orders in Council aforementioned, (except only ſuch Parts thereof as are herein after varied) ſhall be, and continue in Force from the ſaid 20th Day of this Inſtant December, until the 1ſt Day of February next—And that all his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax qualified to act in this Behalf, do cauſe the ſaid Orders, together with the following Variations, to be duly and punctually complied with, viz.

Whereas it has been repreſented to his Majeſty, that there are ſeveral Fenn Lands of large Extent in diverſe Parts of the Kingdom, belonging to ſeveral Pariſhes where great Numbers of Horned Cattle have been, and now are at Paſture, and which, although they are free from the Diſtemper, cannot be removed under his Majeſty's aforementioned Orders in Council, in regard ſome other Cattle in the ſaid Fenn Lands have been infected; and yet for Want of Paſture in the ſaid Fenn Lands during the Winter, it is become abſolutely neceſſary to remove ſuch Cattle from thence, as are in Health—His Majeſty is therefore hereby pleaſed to order, That Liberty be granted to the Proprietors of Horned Cattle, now at Paſture on the ſeveral Fenn Lands which are common to more Pariſhes than one, to remove the ſame from thence to their reſpective Farms and Incloſures, any Thing contained in his Majeſty's aforementioned Orders in Council to the contrary notwithſtanding — But that nevertheleſs a Certificate be firſt obtained under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, of one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, ſpecifying the Name or Names of the Owner or Owners of ſuch Cattle, and that upon Examination on Oath of one or more credible Perſon or Perſons, it appeared to him or them, that the ſaid Cattle was or were at that Time, and had been for the Space of two Calendar Months before the Date of ſuch Certificate, in good Health, and free from the ſaid Diſtemper or Infection—And that the Owner or Owners of ſuch Cattle do likewiſe firſt enter into a Recognizance to his Majeſty, before one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, in the Sum of Ten Pounds for each Beaſt, that he or they will keep the ſaid Cattle ſo removed from Fenn Lands, in ſeparate or diſtinct Pactures from their other Cattle, for the Space of two Calendar Months from the Time of ſuch their Removal.

And his Majeſty doth hereby further order, That for the better continuing the Breed of the Horned Cattle, Liberty be granted to drive Cows to the Bull though in different Pariſhes, provided a Certificate of the Health of ſuch Cows and Bulls be firſt obtained, in like Manner as is above required upon the removing Cattle from Fenn Lands.

And whereas it hath been further repreſented to his Majeſty, That in ſeveral Parts of the Kingdom, it hath been found impracticable to dig Pits for the Cattle that ſhall die of the ſaid Diſtemper, within ſo ſhort a Space of Time as three Hours, (being the Time limited for that Purpoſe by his Majeſty's Order in Council of the 27th of October laſt;) His Majeſty doth therefore hereby order, that the ſaid Time be enlarged from three Hours to eight Hours.

And whereas it hath been alſo repreſented to his Majeſty, That in many Caſes, it is impoſſible for for the Owners of infected Cattle to make the Oaths required by his Majesty's aforementioned Orders in Council; and it being therefore thought reasonable, that the Oath of the Owner required by the said Orders, where the same cannot be had, should be dispensed with, provided the Herdsman or other Servant of such Owner, having the Charge of the said Cattle, do take the several Oaths required by the said Orders in Council to be taken by the Owner of such infected Cattle; and for that Purpose his Majesty doth hereby order, That where the Oaths of the Owner of such infected Cattle, required by the aforementioned Orders in Council, cannot be had, that the Oath of the Herdsman or other Servant of the said Owner, having Charge of the said Cattle, to the several Matters where the Oath of the Owner is required by the said Orders in Council, shall be as sufficient as the Oath of the Owner would have been under the said Orders in Council, any Thing therein mentioned to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

That the Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of the Land Tax do, before they grant any Certificates for the Payment of the Recompence promised by his Majesty's aforementioned Orders in Council, strictly examine, whether the Rules and Regulations contained in his Majesty's said Orders in Council, as likewise in this present Order, have been in all Respects duly complied with; and if upon such Examination, the said Justices or Commissioners shall have just Cause to apprehend, that the Persons applying for such Certificates, have been guilty of Disobedience to any Part or Parts of his Majesty's said Rules and Regulations, that then he or they do refuse granting any such Certificate.

And for the better notifying of this Order, it is his Majesty's Pleasure, that the same be forthwith printed and published, and be also inserted in the next London Gazette; and be likewise read, together with the said three former Orders in Council, in all Parish Churches, Chapels, and other Places set apart for Divine Worship, on the First Sunday after the Publication hereof, and on such Sunday in every Calendar Month, as the Minister of such Church, Chapel, or other Place, shall think proper, agreeable to what is required by an Act passed in the last Session of the last Parliament.

Naples, Nov. 21, N. S. The Rejoycings for the Birth of the young Prince of Calabria, have been continued at Court for several Nights past with great Splendor. Yesterday arrived in this City the Domesticks of the Prince of Medina Celi, who is to be Proxy for the King of Spain at the Christening of the young Prince.

Rome, Nov. 25, N. S. On the 20th the Pope held a private Consistory, in which he gave the Hat to Cardinal Delfino, and conferred upon him at the same Time several Titles and Congregations.

Leghorn, Nov. 27, N. S. The Duke of Richelieu has been lately to the Spezzia, escorted by four of the Republick's Gallies, to give Directions for that Place's being put in a proper Posture of Defence.

Florence, Nov. 28, N. S. The Regency, on Notice that the Epidemical Sickness amongst the Cattle has broke out again in some Parts of Piedmont, as well as in the States of Milan and Mantua; and that it has extended itself with great Mortality amongst the Cattle into the Modenese, and the Legations of Ravenna and Bologna, have published an Edict, forbidding, under the severest Penalties, the driving of Cattle from any of those Places into Tuscany.

Liege, Dec. 12, N. S. A Passage has been granted through this State, for whatever Forage, Flower, Wheat and Rye may be necessary for forming his Britannick Majesty's Magazines. Marshal de Saxe's Baggage is set out for Paris, but he was at Brussels the 10th Instant.

Liege, Dec. 15, N. S. Marshal de Lowendahl is come to Brussels, and it is thought that Mashal Saxe will set out To-morrow for Paris.

Hague, Dec. 19, N. S. The States General published last Saturday three Placards relating to the Trade with France: The first contains a Prohibition of all Wines, Brandy, refined Sugars, Syrups, Paper and Salt of the Produce of France or of the French Colonies. The second prohibits the Insurance of all Ships, Goods and Effects belonging to the French. And by the third, the Subjects of the Republick are absolutely forbid the carrying on Trade for the Use of any of the French King's Subjects. The Placard relating to the Exportation of Corn, &c. is not yet published. The Accounts we have received from the Shipping in Zealand, are extremely favourable, considering the Violence of the late Storm; for except some little Damage received in their Rigging, the Men of War and Victuallers are all safe. The two Yachts, with the Deputies from Zealand on board, did not share the same good Fortune, they were both stranded near Zuriczee, and one of them, it is thought, can never be got off. Admiral Schryver, who sailed that very Day in a Yacht, to join his Fleet at the Texel, put into Hoorn with great Difficulty; but we hear that the Fleet weathered the Storm without any material Accident. The Prince of Orange is entirely recovered of his late Indisposition.
